Consular Seals on Cars.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The secretary of he treasury, with the approval of the President, has issued a circular amending the existing regulations in regard to importations under consular seal so as to require officers of the United States authorized to act in the premises in foreign contiguous cratic meeting was held at Mineraville last territory to make a careful comparison of the contents of cars with a manifest, and to close and seal the openings of the cars speeches were made by Hon. John T. Cain the contents of cars with a manifest, and to close and seal the openings of the cars on their arrival at any frontier port. Cars thus secured with consular seals entry in triplicate will be required of such cars, showing the 'marka, number of packages, contents, quantity, value, consignor and consignee. Such entry may be made by the agent of the railway company and need not be verified by oath. The basis of entry will be the manifest accompanying the car and it will not be necessary to unload the merchandise unless the manifest is regarded by the collectors as too indefinite for the purpose of making entry, or he has other valid reasons for inspection of the contents of the car.

Assistant Secretary Spaulding's object

contents of the car.

Assistant Secretary Spaulding's object in making the amendment is solely for protection. Revenue collectors are enjoined to take all proper measures to prevent unnecessary detention of cars.

If, on examination, the consular seals are found to be intact and the entry made as required, the car will be further secured by a customs lock and forwarded to its destination by a duly bonded route. If the consular seals have been removed or tampered with before arrival at the frontier, the car will be detained and entry be required as in the case of ordinary importations.
